October 2015

ANNUAL MEETING / AUCTION / PICNIC
SATURDAY, OCTOBER 24, Noon to 4 pm

Mark your calendars now for Walkabout International’s annual potluck picnic and auction at East Mission Bay Park (same location as last year).

Call the office (619) 231-7463 ASAP to sign up on the potluck interest list with your name and food contribution. Main dishes preferred.

We need each person to bring three things:
1. Contributions for the auction
2. Food to share for the potluck (usually 40+ attendees)
3. Your checkbook or cash to pay for someone else’s treasure at the auction

The park is located on East Mission Bay Drive just west of the I-5 near the former visitors center at Clairemont Drive, Exit #22. We will be in the Playa II covered shelter (gazebo), south of the visitors center, north of the Hilton Hotel; look for our bright blue banners & signs. Plenty of free parking nearby. Walkabout will provide beverages, ice, cutlery, napkins, cups, and plates. You’re welcome to bring your friends and neighbors; all are welcome (just be sure to bring plenty of food to share).

We will start off with a casual to moderate walk along the bay before lunch. There will be a short annual meeting about Walkabout’s operations presented by our President, Bob Buehler before the auction. As usual, our cheerful auctioneer Dan Haslam will entertain us with his fast talking as he tries his best to move all those treasures to new homes. Auction favorites include plants, homemade baked goods, gift certificates (restaurants, hairdresser, movie tickets), books, gifts that you want to “re-gift”, things that can be consumed (rather than stored on a shelf), gift baskets of fancy food, wine. Things to avoid bringing to the auction: artwork, clothing, electronics (unless working), anything not in good condition.

Come on down for an entertaining afternoon, good food, great company and chances to win free door prizes, plus a chance to win a free day trip to the Broad Museum!

FEATURED TRIPS

BROAD MUSEUM
SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 7

Enjoy Walkabout’s first visit to the new Broad Museum in Los Angeles across from Disney Concert Hall with Rita and Marilyn B. Note that more than one-half of the 49 passenger bus has already been filled from the interest list. This is your chance to see magnificent European paintings and contemporary art work made possible by Eli and Edythe Broad’s huge donation to this totally unique museum, which includes a fabulous restaurant inside. Your trip includes the air conditioned bus and professional driver, a bathroom aboard, entrance fee to the museum, quality snacks and water. The cost to you is much lower than with any other travel group.

Please mail your check for $60.00 to Walkabout Int’l, 2650 Truxtun Rd., Suite 110, San Diego, CA 92106-6007, and include your pickup location: San Diego Walkabout Office or La Costa Park & Ride off I-5 at Carlsbad. Please include a self-addressed stamped envelope for your itinerary and your phone number in case there are any changes. Because we already have a large number of people going, it looks like we’ll have a waiting list, in which case you could receive a refund if you request it.

We will depart from the San Diego Walkabout Office at 7:15 am and arrive at the North County pickup location by 7:45 am, leave North County by 8:00 am and head non-stop to the Museum. We expect to reach the Broad at 10:00 am and you will be on your own until our 4:00 pm departure, which will give you 6 hours to have lunch (on your own) and walk around the huge complex that includes Disney Concert Hall, Ahmanson Theatre and the Mark Taper Forum. We plan to be back in San Diego by 7:00 pm. If you have any questions, please call Rita at home, (619) 266-2555. The day of the event you can reach her on her cell, (619) 890-0375. Marilyn B. and Rita promise this Museum is not like any other museum you have ever seen before.

BACK TO TUCSON

Forest, Saguaro National Monument, the Ted deGrazia art gallery & studio, Bisbee, Tombstone, Tubac and so much more. You can do as much walking on this trip as you like or are able.

Trip includes roundtrip van transportation (air travel is available for about $150 more), double occupancy hotel accommodations (single supplement available at $175), at least two meals a day (breakfast each day and usually lunch), attractions admissions (above), and the services of your tour leader and co-leader. Trip insurance is recommended but not provided. Reservations are first-come, first-served, with a maximum of 13 guests on this tour. Refunds are available only if your seat is resold.

To reserve send $300 deposit to Walkabout International, 2650 Truxtun Road, Suite 110, San Diego, CA 92106. Mark “Tucson” on your payment, and for further info or if you want plane reservations contact trip leader Dan at danielbhaslam111@yahoo.com. It’s been 21 years since a major Tucson trip -- let’s do it up, cowboy/girl!
Sunrise Series, formerly Early Birds, helped Lorraine Marshall celebrate her 90th birthday in August. Sixteen present and past members gathered for breakfast after Pat K’s walk. Lorraine started walking with Walkabout in the early 1980s, leading walks with the early birds, walks in Golden Hill, as well as day and multi-day trips.

REMINDER TO LEADERS AND WALKERS

Walkabout’s intention is for all to have a positive, safe experience while enjoying a walk. Our walks provide an opportunity for exercise and social connections where you can talk to different people as you walk along, or just have the company of other walkers if you prefer not to talk. Let’s take a moment to review some of the guidelines/responsibilities for Walk Leaders and Walkers.

Walk Leaders Guidelines

It is expected that the Walk Leader will adhere to all guidelines. Prior to beginning the walk, state the pace, distance, duration of the walk, and offer safety reminders. When appropriate for your walk, designate someone to be the caboose. The caboose stays at the end of the group, walking at the designated pace. The caboose is not meant to slow pace to match those who cannot maintain the designated pace, but to direct them back to the starting point or to a meeting place and to notify the walk leader of the dropouts. Cross at intersections and regroup on the other side if everyone isn’t able to cross at the same time. Walk Leaders should periodically regroup as appropriate and take a count of Walkers which should match the count at the beginning of the walk.

Walker Guidelines

As a walker it is important to be aware of the pace, distance, duration, and the terrain before the walk starts. If it’s not stated, ask the walk leader. If you think you cannot keep up with the pace, there are options. You can choose to not come on the walk and plan to go on a shorter, slower walk. You can form a plan for a reduced walk on a route you know before the walk begins. Inform the Walk Leader of your plan and if and where you intend to meet the group.

Some of us are slowing down and don’t move as fast as we once did. It is expected that the Walker will keep up with the pace set for the walk. The group will not adjust the pace to meet the needs of those who are unable to keep pace. If you are uncertain as to your pace capability, you have some options. You can go on a walk that is set at a pace slower than what you think you can do. See “Pace Yourself” in the newsletter for a listing of the various speed ranges. You can practice walking on your own for one hour to determine your pace. If there isn’t a walk that suits your needs, contact the office to find out how to create a walk that you can lead for yourself.
