"Sez Me"
Elaine Berger, President

As your president I feel that I should include an article in our newsletter. I would like to use this space to address questions, ideas, complaints, etc., of our membership. My role is to serve you.

This month I want to call out our annual meeting/picnic/ auction. I especially want to invite our newest Walkabout subscribers (those who have been with us for 5 years or less). You are the future of our organization and we really want to see your smiling faces at our picnic. You will have a nice walk, lots of good food and most importantly be able to meet many of our longest tenured members. They have some really great stories they would love to share with you.

Also, look at our day trips to the Huntington Library and the Riverside Mission Inn Christmas visit. I have the honor of being co-leader for each of these trips and am looking forward to seeing all of you. Remember, you can invite a friend or a neighbor to join us for each trip.

ANNUAL MEETING / AUCTION/ PICNIC
SUNDAY, OCTOBER 28, 10:30 AM TO 2:30 PM
11:00 AM WALK, NOON LUNCH, 1:00 PM AUCTION

Mark your calendars now for Walkabout International’s 18th Annual Potluck Picnic and Auction to be held at East Mission Bay Park (same location as last year). Be sure to notice it’s Sunday not Saturday.

We need each person to bring three things:
1. Contributions for the auction;
2. Food to share for the potluck (usually 40+ attendees); and
3. Your checkbook or cash to pay for someone else’s treasure at the auction.

The park is located on East Mission Bay Drive just west of the I-5 near the former visitors center at Clairemont Drive, Exit #22. We will be in the Playa II covered shelter (gazebo), south of the visitor’s center, north of the Hilton Hotel; look for our bright blue banners & signs. Plenty of free parking in the nearby lot. Walkabout will provide drinks, ice, cutlery, napkins, cups, and plates. You’re welcome to bring your friends and neighbors; all are welcome (just be sure to bring plenty of food to share).

We will start off with a casual to moderate walk along the bay before lunch. There will be a short annual meeting about Walkabout’s operations presented by our President, Elaine Berger before the auction. As usual, our cheerful auctioneer Dan Haslam will entertain us with his fast talking as he tries his best to move all those treasures to new homes. Auction favorites include plants, homemade baked goods, gift certificates (restaurants, hairdresser, movie tickets), books, gifts that you want to “re-gift”, things that can be consumed (rather than stored on a shelf), gift baskets of fancy food, wine. Things to avoid bringing to the auction: artwork, clothing, electronics (unless working), anything not in good condition.

Come on down for an entertaining day on the bay enjoying good food and company. Call the office (619) 231-7463 to sign up on the potluck interest list with your name and food contribution. Main dishes preferred.
HOW DID WE GET HERE?
Submitted by Bruce Herms

This past August several of us “old timers” got together in a grassy corner of Balboa Park. It wasn’t anything fancy - a simple BYOBBL (bring-your-own-brown-bag-lunch). Brought together partly by an invitation from Paula Stober and her husband Bill, partly by word of mouth, partly by?? I don’t know how information is distributed now days! It was an interesting collection of people, some of whom you know: Diane Altona, Katie Wilson, Pat Keller, Pat Shanks, Stan Follis, Mark Levy, Marilyn Ralph, Carol Weiss, Evelyn Kooperman and of course Paula, Bill and myself.

What was the topic? You guessed it: “travel and Walkabout trips” -- some recent and some from long ago. But the talk wasn’t just about Walkabout trips. Walkabout has been blessed with some really remarkable walkers and travelers - - dare I say really world class walkers. Some you will recognize from the list above. Some include Larry Foreman, Dan Haslam, Flavia Hewitt, Jane Zeer, Gail Fox, Edie Roach, and Carol and Jim Sugg. And how can we forget those wonderful friends who continue to serve us on that great trek in the sky: Lorraine Marshall, Verna Bain, Kathy Follis, Audrey Davis, Lance and Jane Jones, Harriet Nixon, Downtown Sam and Jerry Archer. This list is by no means complete and is not limited to just Walkabout activities. In listening to the on-going conversation of the gathering last August, it became evident that some of the most cherished walking memories deal with ‘non-Walkabout’ adventures.

For example, Jerry Archer was a completely unstructured, seat-of-your-pants walk leader. People who went on Jerry’s trips never knew what was coming up next, mainly because he did not know himself! He would get his travelers checked into a hostel, then poll his brood to find out if they would mind his sleeping on the floor of their room? If he used a van for transportation, it was like having ring-side seats for Family Feud. He and his girlfriend would have some real knock-down/drag-out arguments. Lots of drama!

I don’t think Walkabout ever approved any of Jerry’s trips, but he went ahead and conducted them on his own. They were always well received by Walkabouters. His fall trips to Assilomar were always sold out. His overseas trips to Europe or South America were popular. Ask Katie Wilson about Iquasu falls in Argentina.

Another memorable leader was Verna Bain. Verna led many fine walkabout trips, but she also led many smaller non-Walkabout trips with some of her close friends. Some of these trips were related to her involvement with the International House Exchange Program. For example, she would arrange for an English family to move into her home overlooking Mission Bay while she and her friends occupied the guest’s home in England. There are many precious travel memories floating around concerning those trips.

One of my favorite “independents” was Hans and Diane Altona. They truly were “world class” travelers and adventurers-ranking from Oaxaca, Mexico to the canals of Holland, to the ruins of Borobodur in the East Indies.

Stan Follis and Marilyn Buckley asked me if I could share some of my memories with you in the monthly newsletter. So, stand by, I will be seeing you in future editions.

RIVERSIDE COUNTY MISSION INN

SATURDAY, DECEMBER 15, 2018

Join Beverly Bruff and Elaine Berger for a moderate activity level day trip to Riverside County to three very different destinations. Our first stop will be at the Farmers Market in Temecula. You will have time to wander around the market. There will be local fruits and vegetables, plants, flowers, crafts and much more. Then we’ll head for downtown Riverside to Tio Tacos’s, a hole in the wall taco shop. You’ll find traditional Mexican food as well as seafood. A great place for lunch (on your own). It is the backyard that brings us here. It is filled with unique, eclectic art/sculptures from recycled, repurposed material. There’s a snake made from a vacuum cleaner hose located in a tree. Tio Taco’s is a must.

After visiting Tio Tacos, we’ll walk to our final destination, Mission Inn, a national historical landmark. This inn opened in 1903 as a roadside motel. Today this 4-story, 238 room inn occupies a city block in the heart of downtown Riverside. Numerous presidents and Hollywood stars have frequented the inn. At dusk, we will enjoy millions of holiday sparkling lights that transform the inn into an enchanting fairy tale setting. Upon leaving the Mission Inn we will be heading south on the 15 to a Sizzler restaurant for dinner (on your own). Sizzlers menu provides a broad selection of food for meat lovers, vegetarians, etc.

Mail your check for $70 to the Walkabout Office which is $30 less than our competitors. Please include your email address and cell phone number. There will be no refunds unless someone from the waiting list takes your place. Questions???? Call Bev Bruff: (858) 268-8088

HUNTINGTON LIBRARY ART COLLECTIONS AND BOTANICAL GARDENS
SATURDAY NOVEMBER 10, 2018

Come spend a lovely autumn day with Marilyn B. and Elaine B. as we explore the many visual pleasures that the Huntington Library and Gardens has to offer. Start anywhere you want – in the Thornton Portrait Gallery, where you can view the original Blue Boy by Gainsborough and Pinkie by Thomas Lawrence, as well as other great works of art.

Project Blue Boy undergoes its first major technical examination and conservation treatment in public view in a special satellite conservation studio set up in the west end of the Huntington’s grand portrait gallery. In the West Hall of the Library, you will find “Architects of a Golden Age” an exhibit documenting one of the most creative and influential periods in Southern California architecture. The exhibition spotlights about 20 original drawings and plans selected from The Huntington’s important Southern California architecture collection.

Or stroll through the many beautiful gardens, including the Japanese Gardens, the Rose Gardens and Desert Landscaping. You can do as much or as little walking as you’d like over several miles of flat terrain.

The Huntington has a cafeteria style restaurant called “The Café” with a huge assortment of choices and view of the gardens. Lunch is on your own and the Huntington has asked us not to bring any food onto the premises.

We will leave San Diego at 8:30 a.m. in a comfortable 47-passenger bus with a bathroom, and pick up the North County people at La Costa off I-5 by 9:00 a.m. Then drive directly to the Huntington non-stop in order to arrive by 11:00 a.m. We will head home at 4:00 p.m. in order to return to San Diego by 7:00 p.m.

Cost of the trip includes the bus, driver tip, entrance fee, and snacks with water. Please mail your $75.00 check per person payable to Walkabout International to 2650 Truxtun Rd., Suite 110, San Diego, CA 92106. Be sure to indicate San Diego or North County pick-up location and your phone number. Please enclose a self-addressed stamped envelope so we can mail your itinerary. Refunds only if there is a waiting list.
